1. Business Results and Financial Position

(1) Business Results

1) Outline of consolidated financial results for the consolidated fiscal year under review

The Japanese economy during the consolidated fiscal year under review showed an overall recovery in personal consumption following the revitalization of the stock market and the correction of the yen's appreciation by the effects of Abenomics policies. In addition to this, capital investment increased, and the employment environment improved. Taken as a whole, these factors reveal a gradual recovery trend. The economy will continue on track for recovery based on the expectation of domestic demand through an improved income environment despite concerns about the downward trend of overseas economies, particularly in developing countries, and slowing of rush demand following the increase in the consumption tax.

In the housing sales market, although labor and material costs increased, contract rates remained high supported by the expansion of housing loan tax credits and low interest rates, revealing steady growth. In the office market, although rent levels remained low, vacancy rates in the Tokyo metropolitan area are in a downward trend, and some large-size properties showed increases in rents, indicating signs of recovery. In the real estate investment market, a number of new REIT listings by investment corporations along with capital increases through public offerings and the vitalization of real estate transactions supported by a continuously strong fund procurement environment indicated stable growth in the business environment.

As a result, the Nomura Real Estate Group was able to achieve a growth in both revenue and income year on year, and post the following consolidated performance for the current fiscal year: Operating revenue of 532,016 million yen, which represents an increase of 14,275 million yen, or 2.8% from the previous fiscal year; operating income of 74,307 million yen, an increase of 15,999 million yen, or 27.4%; ordinary income of 64,058 million yen, an increase of 18,251 million yen, or 39.8%; and net income of 26,844 million yen, an increase of 7,486 million yen, or 38.7%. The Group recognized an extraordinary loss for an impairment loss of 16,572 million yen in connection with certain lease assets in its noncurrent assets for which business profitability has declined.

An overview of segment achievements is given below.

Operating revenue for each segment includes internal sales and transfer amount among segments. Due to the rounding of fractions, total figures may not match.

From April 2013, Nomura Real Estate Reform Co., Ltd. was shifted from the Property & Facility Management Business Segment to the Residential Development Business Segment to promote unification with the housing development business. In line with this shift, results of the previous consolidated fiscal year for the relevant segments are also included in the new segment classification.

<Residential Development Business Segment>

Residential Development Business Segment reported the sale of 6,209 units (an increase of 460 units from the previous fiscal year), including PROUD TOWER Shinonome Canal Court (Koto-ku, Tokyo), PROUD CITY Motsumiyoshi (Nakahara-ku, Kawasaki-shi, Kanagawa), OHANA Tamagawajosui Gardenia (Higashi-Yamato-shi, Tokyo), and PROUD Kawanayama Garden (Showa-ku, Nagoya-shi, Aichi) condominiums, and PROUD SEASON Fujimino-Kamifukuoka (Fujimino-shi, Saitama) and PROUD SEASON Tamagawajosui (Higashi-Yamato-shi, Tokyo) detached houses.

Sales have remained strong, and the number of contracted unrecorded housing units as of the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review totaled 6,189 units (an increase of 789 units over the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year).

As a result, operating revenue in this segment totaled 310,579 million yen, which represents an increase of 2,111 million yen, or 0.7% from the previous consolidated fiscal year, and operating income was 33,730 million yen, an increase of 940 million yen, or 2.9%. Compared with the previous consolidated fiscal year, we achieved increases in sales and profit, due mainly to the increase in the number of units recorded in residential housing sales.

Number of units, sales, and outstanding contract amount as sold for the joint-venture are calculated based on the Company's allotments.

<Leasing Business Segment >

We enhanced business activities to satisfy the needs of tenants in the leasing business sector. In the consolidated fiscal year under review, Lazona Kawasaki TOSHIBA Building (Saiwai-ku, Kawasaki-shi, Kanagawa), a large-size office building, with a total floor area of more than 100,000m<sup>2</sup>, started operation without vacancies. In addition, bono Sagamiono Shopping Center (Minami-ku, Sagamihara-shi, Kanagawa) which opened in March 2013 contributed to profit growth throughout the year.

In property development operations, we enhanced branding of office buildings, retail and logistics business sectors by building up a track record of development. In the consolidated fiscal year under review, we posted sales of GEMS Shibuya (Shibuya-ku, Tokyo) and PMO Nihonbashi Odenmachi (Chuo-ku, Tokyo).

As a result, operating revenue in this segment totaled 96,912 million yen, which represents a decrease of 9,753 million yen, or 9.1% from the previous consolidated fiscal year, and operating income totaled 27,034 million yen, an increase of 3,699 million yen, or 15.9%, resulting in a decrease in revenue and an increase profit compared with the previous consolidated fiscal year. This is due mainly to the fact that revenue from the sale of properties dropped while profitability improved in the previous consolidated fiscal year in property development sector.

(2) Medium-to Long-term Management Strategy, Target Indicators and Issues to be Addressed

The environment surrounding the Group is expected to remain uncertain and unstable into the foreseeable future due to, among other factors, a maturing domestic and a more borderless world economy.

The declining birthrate, aging population, changes in the composition of households, diversification of customer needs, an increase in residential and building properties, and advancing globalization are expected to have a long-term impact on the situation facing the Group.

In view of these circumstances, we have introduced a new mid- to long-term business plan, “Nomura Real Estate Group Mid- to Long-term Business Plan (through 2022/3) - Creating Value through Change -“, one which reflects the Group’s long-term vision and aims to realize sustainable growth throughout the entire organization.

In the case of significant transactions that take place between the date of the closing of accounts of the consolidated subsidiaries and the consolidated account closing date, necessary adjustments are made for consolidation purposes.

4. Accounting Standards and Methods

(1) Valuation standards and methods for principal assets

1) Short-term investments and investment securities

Held-to-maturity debt securities are stated at amortized cost by the straight-line method.

Available-for-sale securities with market value are stated at fair market value based on market quotations at the balance sheet date.

Unrealized gains and losses are reported, net of the applicable taxes, as a separate component of Net Assets. Cost of securities sold is determined by the moving-average method. Available-for-sale securities without market value are stated at cost by the moving-average method.

2) Derivatives

Derivatives are stated using the market value method.

3) Inventories

Inventories are mainly stated at cost, determined by the specific identification cost method (the amounts of inventories in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheet are computed based on the write-down method reflecting decreased profitability).

(2) Depreciation and amortization method for significant depreciable assets

1) Property and equipment (except for leased assets)

Depreciation of property and equipment is computed mainly by the straight-line method.

Estimated useful lives used in the computation of depreciation are generally as follows:

Buildings and structures 2 to 65 years

2) Noncurrent assets (except for leased assets)

Depreciation of noncurrent assets is computed by the straight-line method.

Costs of software for internal use are amortized using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of 5 years.

3) Leased assets

Leased assets are depreciated using the straight-line method, assuming the lease period to be the useful life and the residual value to be zero. Finance leases, other than those that transfer ownership, which started on or before March 31, 2008, are accounted for as operating leases.

(3) Standards for the provision of significant allowances

1) Allowance for doubtful accounts

In order to prepare for possible bad debt losses on notes and accounts receivable and loans, allowance for doubtful accounts is provided at an amount calculated on the basis of a historical bad debt ratio for a certain reference period for normal claims, plus an estimated uncollectible amount determined on the basis of individual assessments for specific claims with potential losses.

2) Provision for employee bonuses

To prepare for the payment of employee bonuses, an amount corresponding to the portion of the bonus payments in the consolidated fiscal year under review is reserved.

3) Provision for director bonuses

To prepare for the payment of director bonuses, an amount corresponding to the portion of the bonus payments in the consolidated fiscal year under review is reserved.

4) Provision for loss on business liquidation

To prepare for losses in connection with the withdrawal from businesses, an estimated amount of the expenses for losses is reserved.

5) Provision for loss on subleasing business

To prepare for losses on properties that are highly likely to continue arising in the subleasing business, an estimated amount of the losses and an estimated amount for the next consolidated fiscal year and after is reserved.

(4) Method of accounting regarding retirement benefits

1) Attribution of estimated retirement benefits

To calculate benefit liabilities, the estimated amount of retirement benefits is attributed to the consolidated fiscal year under review based on the straight-line attribution method.

2) Amortization of actuarial gains and losses and prior service costs

Prior service costs are amortized by the straight-line method over 10 years within the average number of remaining service years of the eligible employees at the time of accrual.

Actuarial gains and losses are amortized by the straight-line method over 10 years within the average number of remaining service years of the eligible employees at the time of accrual in each consolidated fiscal year, and allocated proportionately from the consolidated fiscal year following the respective consolidated fiscal year of accrual.

(5) Standards for the provision of significant revenues and expenses

Basis for the recording of revenue and cost of completed work

The percentage-of-completion method is applied when the outcome of the construction activity during the fiscal year is deemed certain in the course of the activity (percentage of completion is calculated by dividing the related cost incurred by the estimated total cost); otherwise the completed-contract method is applied.

(6) Standards for the translation of important foreign currency-based assets or liabilities into Japanese yen

All current and non-current accounts denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Japanese yen at the spot exchange rates in effect at the consolidated balance sheet date. Differences arising from such translation are recognized as gain or loss. The asset and liability accounts of the overseas subsidiaries and affiliates are translated into Japanese yen at the exchange rates prevailing at the respective balance sheet dates of the subsidiaries and affiliates and the revenue and expense accounts are translated into Japanese yen at the average rates of exchange for the year. Differences arising from such translation are presented as “Foreign currency translation adjustments” in Net Assets.

(7) Significant hedge accounting

1) Hedge accounting method

Hedging transactions are accounted for using deferral hedge accounting, which requires the unrealized gains or losses to be deferred as assets or liabilities until the losses or gains on the underlying hedged items are recognized. For interest rate swaps that meet certain hedging criteria, the Group applies exceptional treatment.

2) Hedging instruments and hedged items

| <Hedging instruments>                                 | <Hedged items>                               |
|---|--|
| Interest rate swap contracts                          | Borrowings                                   |
| Currency swaps and foreign exchange forward contracts | Securities denominated in foreign currencies |

3) Hedge policy

In accordance with internal rules, interest rate swap transactions are conducted to avoid interest rate fluctuation and foreign exchange fluctuation risks.

4) Method for assessing the effectiveness of hedges

The Group evaluates hedge effectiveness by comparing the cumulative changes in market fluctuations or in cash flows of the Hedged items to the corresponding changes in the hedging derivative instruments. However, the Group does not evaluate hedge effectiveness of interest rate swaps for which the Group applies the exceptional treatment.

(8) Amortization of Goodwill

Goodwill is amortized using the straight-line method over a period of 14 to 20 years.

(9) Scope of cash in consolidated cash flow statements

Cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flows consist of cash on hand, readily-available deposits, and short-term investments with a maturity not exceeding three months at the time of purchase that are readily convertible to cash and not exposed to significant risk in value fluctuations.

(10) Other important matters for the preparation of consolidated financial statements

The tax-exclusion method is used to account for national and local consumption taxes. However, non-deductible consumption taxes on fixed assets are included in “Other” under investments and other assets and amortized over 5 years, non-deductible consumption taxes on land (inventory assets) are included in the acquisition costs, and other non-deductible consumption taxes are expensed as incurred.

(Changes in Accounting Policies)

(Application of Accounting Standards for Retirement Benefits)

The Group has applied the “Accounting Standards for Retirement Benefits” (Accounting Standards Board of Japan (ASBJ) Statement No.26 issued May, 17 2012; hereinafter “Retirement Benefits Accounting Standards”) and the “Guidance on Accounting Standards for Retirement Benefits” (ASBJ Guidance No.25 issued May, 17 2012; hereinafter “Guidance”) from the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review (excluding the provisions stipulated in the main clause of Article 35 of the Retirement Benefits Accounting Standards and in the main clause of Article 67 of the Guidance). In line with this, our retirement benefit liabilities are now calculated as net defined benefit liabilities, which is the amount of retirement benefits after deduction of pension assets, and unrecognized actuarial gains and losses and unrecognized prior service costs are calculated in the retirement benefits liabilities.

The adoption of the accounting standards for retirement benefits, etc. is subject to the transitional treatment stipulated by Article 37 of the Retirement Benefits Accounting Standards, and the amount of financial impact on the consolidated financial statements as a result of the adoption of these accounting standards is added/ removed from accumulated adjustments associated with the provision of retirement benefits in accumulated other comprehensive income.

As a result, the retirement benefits liabilities at the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review totaled 14,901 million yen and the accumulated other comprehensive income increased by 742 million yen. Net assets per share increased by 3.89 yen.

The impairment loss is broken down into an impairment loss of ¥10,406 million on land and an impairment loss of ¥998 million on buildings and others. The recoverable amount of these groups of assets is measured at the net realizable value and the net realizable value is determined based on the expected sales price and the appraisal value provided by real estate appraisers.

FY2013 (From April 1, 2013 to March 31, 2014)

| Primary use            | Type                         | Location                             |

As a result, with respect to nine groups of assets the profitability of which has dropped significantly due to the deterioration of the market conditions and the decline in rent level or that the Group plans to sell, the carrying amount has been reduced to the recoverable amount and the amount of reduction has been recognized as an extraordinary loss of ¥16,572 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014.

The impairment loss is broken down into an impairment loss of ¥11,821 million on land and an impairment loss of ¥4,751 million on buildings and others. The recoverable amount of these groups of assets is measured at the net realizable value and the net realizable value is determined based on the expected sales price and the appraisal value provided by real estate appraisers.

(Segment Information)

a. Segment information

1. Segment summary

The reportable segments of the Group comprise those business units for which separate financial information is available, and which are subject to a regular review conducted by the Company's Board of Directors in order to determine the allocation of management resources and evaluate their performance.

With the Company, as a pure holding company the Group consists of business companies and divisions, such as Nomura Real Estate Development Co., Ltd. The business companies (or business divisions within Nomura Real Estate Development) formulate comprehensive strategies on respective products and services handled by them and conduct business activities based on such strategies. Therefore, business segments of the Group are distinguished by products and services, primarily by business companies (or by business divisions within Nomura Real Estate Development).

From first quarter consolidated accounting period, Nomura Real Estate Reform Co., Ltd. was shifted from the Property & Facility Management Business Segment to the Residential Development Business Segment to promote unification with the housing development business.

In line with this shift, results of the previous consolidated fiscal year for the relevant segments are also included in the new segment classification.

2. Methods for calculating operating revenue, operating income (loss), assets, liabilities and other items by reportable segment

The accounting method for reportable segments is almost equivalent to that specified in "Significant Accounting Policies". Reportable segment income is presented based on operating income. Intersegment sales and transfer amounts are presented based on market prices.

3. Information regarding sales, gains or losses, assets, liabilities, and other amounts by reportable segments
